

NEWSFLASH: Heritage Chronicles

A new Croydon Supplementary Education Project (CSEP) initiative that offers the community an opportunity to participate in a range of free interactive intergenerational learning activities for “understanding and remembering slavery”.

FREE EVENTS

Lectures | July 2007

The Transatlantic Slave Trade – The Triangle Effect

Delivered by: Dr Hakim Adi (Ph.D SOAS, London University)
Date: Wednesday 18th July 2007
Time: 7.00pm arrival & registration 7.30pm Start
Venue: Croydon Town Hall, Katharine St, Croydon CR9 1XW
Price: FREE

The Unsung Heroes & Heroines of Abolition

Delivered by: Angelina Osborne – Researcher, Writer & Editor
Date: Wednesday 25th July 2007
Time: 7.00pm arrival & registration 7.30pm Start
Venue: Croydon Town Hall, Katharine St, Croydon CR9 1XW
Price: FREE

Workshops | July-October 2007

Stilts Walking Performance 10 week workshop

“Jonkonnu Play Mass” young people age 10 – 16 (maximum 20 spaces)

Delivered by: Kyle Walcott – Professional Stilts Walker
Dates: Saturday 21st July 2007 through to Saturday 27th October 2007
Time: 9.00am - 11.00am
Venue: CSEP, 32-34 Sydenham Rd, Croydon CRO 2EF
Price: £25 Deposit required + 100% regular full attendance

Other Events | October 2007

Black History Month, CSEP Heritage Day

Date: Saturday 27th October 2007
Venue: To be confirmed
Price: Tickets go on sale 31st August 2007

Contact CSEP on 0208 686 7865 or email info@csep.org.uk if you wish to request a booking form to attend any of the above events.

For more details visit www.csep.org.uk/NEWSFLASH

BIOGRAPHIES

Dr Hakim Adi

The Transatlantic Slave Trade – The Triangle Effect

Dr Hakim Adi (Ph.D SOAS, London University) is Reader in the History of Africa and the African Diaspora at Middlesex University, London, UK. He is a founder member and currently chairs the Black and Asian Studies Association. Hakim is the author of West Africans in Britain 1900-60: Nationalism, Pan-Africanism and Communism (Lawrence and Wishart, 1998) and (with M. Sherwood) The 1945 Manchester Pan-African Congress Revisited (New Beacon, 1995) and Pan-African History: Political Figures from Africa and the Diaspora since 1787 (Routledge, 2003). He has appeared in television documentaries and radio programmes, and has written widely on the history of Pan-Africanism, the African Diaspora, and Africans in Britain, including three history books for children.

Angelina Osborne

The Unsung Heroes & Heroines of Abolition

Angelina Osborne is a freelance researcher, writer, editor and workshop facilitator. Her speciality is looking at the Black presence in Britain and Caribbean history. Prior to becoming freelance, Angelina was the editor and researcher for Every Generation, the history and heritage community portal aimed at young people and schools and mainstream bodies. In 2003 Every Generation won the CRE Race in the Media award for best website, launched the 100 Great Black Britons website and was nominated for a Race in the Media award in 2005.

Angelina has produced work for the National Archives, the Heritage Lottery Fund, Momentum Arts, the Windrush Foundation, the British Film Institute, and the Equiano Society.

She has recently researched and written the 'Sites of Memory' pamphlet for English Heritage, which comes out March 2007, and is currently the Atlantic Gallery project consultant at the National Maritime Museum, and research consultant at Anti Slavery International. Her publication Equiano's Daughter came out in April.

Kyle Walcott

Jonkonnu Play Mass

Kyle Walcott is a top professional stilt performer from Barbados who has been walking on stilts for 9 years. He has performed in most entertainment venues in Barbados which include Cabaret shows, floor shows, hotels, Carnival, parades and nightclubs. Kyle revels in the audience's reaction to his extraordinary performances and always tries to get their participation in his shows. He has previously taught stilt walking in schools and community centres in Barbados. Kyle now lives in the UK and has already performed at the Notting Hill carnival, Luton Carnival, Family Fun Days and night clubs.

