Dear Head of Supplementary School / Head of Community Language School / Community Leader / Parent / Guardian / Carer

“CROYDON’S OLYMPIANS”

This is a NEW CSEP project to be delivered to help celebrate the Cultural Olympiad. The Cultural Olympiad 2008 -2012 is a four year programme of activity celebrating culture in London and throughout the UK to promote the London 2012 Games.

CSEP’S contribution to help celebrate the Cultural Olympiad in Croydon (funded via Croydon Council’s Community Grant Scheme for the Cultural Olympiad) is CROYDON’S OLYMPIANS.

This is a series of Three events where the focus will be on PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE Olympians AND at the same time reinforcing the Olympic Values of RESPECT, FRIENDSHIP & EXCELLENCE.

Our first “Croydon’s Olympians” event took place on Saturday 31st January 09 and the theme on the day was RESPECT.

Our second event will be on Saturday 21st February at Trinity School, Shirley Park, Croydon 12.00pm -3.00pm and the theme on the day will be FRIENDSHIP. For this event we are inviting participants from other Supplementary Schools & Community Language Schools to take part in a “friendly” Mini Badminton Fun Tournament.

Andrei Wiltshire who is a professional Badminton & Tennis Coach & former National player for Jamaica who also coached Olympic Badminton 2004 player Nigella Saunders will be umpire for the day. After the tournament Andrei will answer questions in a MASTERMIND setting, from the young people, about Olympic badminton & tennis.

Please encourage your young people to attend (with a parent or a friend) to come along have some fun and find out more what it takes to become an Olympic Athlete.

Entry into Trinity School is via Addiscombe Road entrance (buses 119, 194,198, 466, 130,367.The event will take place in the sports hall & light refreshments provided.

Please complete the reply slip and return it to CSEP before Thursday 19th February

Yours sincerely
Jacinth Martin
Projects Co-ordinator
